BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Chapter 37 of Title 36 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to the acquisition and disposition of real and personal property generally, is amended by revising paragraph (3) of subsection (i) of Code Section 36-37-6, relating to the sale or disposition of municipal property, as follows:

"(3) In disposing of property, as authorized under this subsection, the municipality shall notify the owner of such property at the time of its acquisition. If the original owner of the property at the time of the municipality's acquisition of such property is deceased, the municipality shall make every effort to locate and give notice to the original owner's next of kin. Provided that the municipality successfully contacted the original owner's next of kin, such next of kin shall have the first opportunity to purchase the property which the municipality is disposing of pursuant to this subsection. If, after 180 days, the municipality is unable to identify the next of kin of the original owner of the property at the time of such property's acquisition or; if the tract from which the municipality acquired its property has been subsequently sold, the municipality shall notify the owner of abutting land holding title through the owner from whom the municipality acquired its property. The notice shall be in writing and delivered to the appropriate owner or shall be by publication if such owner's address is unknown; and such owner shall have the right to acquire, as provided in this subsection, the property with respect to which the notice

26 is given. Publication, if necessary, shall be in a newspaper of general circulation in the
